Dedicated to
Mr. Duane VanDuzen

To you, Mr. VanDuzen, we the Seniors of the class of 1958 gratefully dedicate this Mogul in appreciation for the guidance you have given our championship football teams and for your help as a teacher and friend.

Mr. VanDuzen is demonstrating football plays on the blackboard.

Board of Education

In Appreciation

Upon your retirement after many years of successful teaching, the Senior Class of 1958 would like to pay tribute to you, Mrs. Fowler, for your endless help as a teacher, counselor, and friend during the time you were with us at Fremont High School.

Community and school . . .

Fremont's P.T.A. is a community group which works consistently for the welfare of the school.

Many community groups and individuals contributed funds for the building of the new field house, used for the first time last fall. Football fans are pictured here at one of the refreshment stands.

The Science Action Committee, a group composed of representative community leaders, helped establish an honor project for outstanding Fremont science and mathematics students. Duncan Steele, Fred Parker, and Elaine Brooks are shown at work in the Gerber lab.

Working together . . .

Many community organizations, among them the Fremont Chamber of Commerce, co-operate with the high school. Pictured is Bob Comer presenting Mr. Durkee with two flags for the band. Also pictured are drum majors Carolyn Brinkman and Raymi Wakefield.

Three judges were picked from the community for the cherry pie contest. They were Mrs. Evelyn McCormick, Mrs. Duane Parks and Mrs. Gary Graham. Also pictured are the homemaking teachers, Mrs. Willson and Mrs. Adair.

Many community people patronized the annual Senior Sale just as they do our plays, concerts and athletic events.

For better schools

Many community leaders participate in the annual Government Day, which helps Newaygo County students learn more about government work at various levels. Here we see Dr. Paul Emerich, second from left, and Frank Walker of the Gerber Products Co., third from left, serving as resource people for the group discussion on education.

The Moose Lodge presented our school with a whirlpool bath. Marlyn Shell is using it with Mr. Piggott and Harold Hawes looking on. The Lodge also furnished first aid men and equipment at all of our football games.

The I.O.O.F. sponsors an oration contest each year which offers the winner from Newaygo County schools a two week visit to the United Nations and other places of interest. Ilona Skalder, last year's winner from Fremont High School, is shown here receiving the congratulations of Mr. Robert Fenner, I.O.O.F. member.

Senior Class History

In the fall of 1954 an exuberant freshman group embarked upon their high school careers as students of Fremont High School.

Under the guidance of Miss Orr, Mr. DeJong, Mr. Saunders, Mrs. Willson, Mr. Myers and Mr. Hermance we chose our leaders for the year. Those chosen were Steve Dawe, president; Pat Kempf, vice-president; Bettie Cook, secretary; and Barbara Young, treasurer. We were represented in Student Council by Carol Tanis, Carol Reed, Milton Bolles, Corrine Hooker and Arlene Lampman.

Regardless of our many participants in the various seasonal sports, music and dramatics we found time to schedule a skating party at Curvecrest with the tenth grade.

The fall of '55 showed us to be experienced sophomores. We elected Owen Smith, president; Judy Holcomb, vice-president; Helen Gerber, secretary; and Sharon DeKuiper and Cynthia Heynen, co-treasurers. We were well represented in student government by Steve Dawe, Milan Maat, Ilona Skalders, Norma Weiden and Judy Gilliland. We benefited extremely from the assistance of Mr. Provines, Mr. Cooper, Mrs. Willson, Mr. Warner, Mr. Amundsen and Mr. Snellenberger, our class sponsors.

A profitable financial project indulged in by our sophomore class was the car wash, which resulted in the envy of all other classes.

In football, basketball, track, baseball and tennis our class was proud of their showing in membership. We were fortunate to have two spirited members, Doreen Willis and Bettie Cook, as Varsity Cheerleaders to cheer these boys forward.

As we progressed into our Junior year we were faced with many new responsibilities. To carry on the business of our class we elected Carl DeKuiper, president; Jim Meyers, vice-president; Marie Mellon, secretary; and Jane Laskowski, treasurer. Our advisors were Mr. DeJong, Mr. Fosheim, Mr. Kwast, Mr. Hermance and Mrs. Fowler.

Representing us in the Student Council were Bettie Cook, Corrine Hooker, Milan Maat, Wayne Smalligan and Dick Trindle. The student body displayed their faith in the Junior class by electing Steve Dawe, vice-president of the Student Council and Carl DeKuiper, treasurer.

Ilona Skalders displayed her oratorical ability by winning the United Nations Contest for a trip to New York and Washington, D. C.

Under the direction of Mr. Fosheim we presented our Junior Play, "Father Knows Best," a three act comedy, in November.

Our theme for the Junior-Senior Banquet was "Around the World" with our own representatives from Japan, the United States, Hawaii and other countries.

Two of our athletes demonstrated remarkable ability by being chosen for the All Ken-New-Wa Team. They were Art Rottman and Bob Vandenberg.

Our most eventful year arrived with additional opportunities and duties. To lead us in this all important year as Seniors we elected Steve Dawe, president; Elaine Brooks, vice-president; Marie Mellon, secretary; and Norma Weiden, treasurer.

With our chief sponsor, Miss VanHorn, and the assistance of Mr. Durkee, Mr. Adair, Mrs. Boerman and Miss Elmquest, we were guided on the right path throughout the year.

Our representatives to the Student Council were Orville Elema, Pat Kempf, Art Rottman and Carol Tanis. The cabinet members were Dan Weirich, Owen Smith, Wayne Smalligan and Corrine Hooker. Two of our seniors were chosen by the student body as officers of the Student Council. They were Milan Maat, president, and Bettie Cook, treasurer.

The Homecoming was presided over by lovely Queen Jane Laskowski.

Leading athletes were Art Rottman, Carl DeKuiper, Bob Vandenberg and Marlyn Shell who were chosen for the All Ken-New-Wa Team. Marlyn Shell was chosen All State by the Detroit Free Press. To cheer the team on we had such spirited Varsity Cheerleaders as Bettie Cook, Shirley Kingsford, Carol Tanis and Doreen Willis.

Our class produced a fine cook with Karen Wood winning first prize in the local Cherry Pie Contest. The Betty Crocker Homemaker Award was won by Jane Weisner.

Under the direction of Miss Elmquest we produced the Senior Play, "Strange Boarders."

Our memorable skip trip, banquets and finally baccalaureate and commencement rounded out our high school years. As we cross the threshold into greater horizons beyond, we shall treasure the memories of these high school years. The knowledge acquired will serve as the foundation for our various walks of life.

These Fremont High School Seniors are on their way! They have learned all about that "money in the bank" feeling. They know, too, that even if money doesn't grow on trees it certainly does grow in the bank.

Saving and planning go together. What you will become depends on how well you plan for it. No one ever achieved success accidentally. No one ever saved that way either.

We are proud of our partnership with all of you fine young people of this community and welcome any opportunity to help achieve your goal. Come and see us. Our door is always open!
